

SEASIDE CLUB PRESENTS
CRYPTO HUNTERS

CRYPTO HUNTERS NFT:

Only 3000 NFTs Available

We are happy to introduce you the special reality TV show series "Crypto Hunters"! This show combines the digital world of cryptocurrency and NFT's into the real world through the competitive reality TV series.

The series are aimed to shape the growing interest in decentralized technologies by showing their real use cases in an easy to understand entertainment format. Crypto Hunters will build world-wide trust and credibility to the crypto space, blurring the lines between a novice and a pro of the industry.

Global reach of the show will be ensured by the professional production team. The founder of Seaside Club is deeply involved in the production process and he will ensure that all facets of the Club will be showcased in the right way making a show act as a catalyst for Seaside Club brand promotion.

Crypto Hunters - a global premiere coming soon!

The series will start with a massive world wide casting campaign through social media. Via this ambitious global marketing campaign we will engage with people from around the globe to seek out Crypto Hunters who will become the contestants of the series. The Crypto Hunters series intellectual property belongs exclusively to Seaside Club. Since the pre-production stage has finished, we are working now on showcasing it on major worldwide TV broadcasters and streaming services (like Disney+ or Netflix).

The Crypto Hunters series intellectual property belongs exclusively to Seaside Club. The IP will be further licensed to streaming and TV companies around the globe; it will be used to create merchandise and other branded experiences. All the proceeds from NFT sales will go directly to the series production budget, but it will barely cover 20% of the total costs. It means that Seaside Club could have completed the series on its own, but we want our community to be a part of this journey.
